7 November 1992		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • asked to speak to both of us during the day she and had driven close to the Crèche

7 November
1992

- she had remembered being taken by Peter for a walk to a house across the road from the Crèche - two storied white brick house with a balcony
- children were [sic],
- 3 men at house
- took them onto balcony and told children to go back to the Crèche but they wouldn't go because they didn't know the way back through the house and they didn't want to jump
- told to stand still
- hitting and tickling them
- Peter and men laughed - they didn't touch their private parts.

7 November
1992

- when the children left the house they were afraid to go back to the Crèche because they were too young to cross the road - Peter came and took them back to the Crèche
- while they were on the walk they were supposed to find things to take back to the Crèche to make things - they didn't have anything to make something with so they drew pictures of the house and those were put up on the walls

1992

- reminds of last night's discussions and driving past the Crèche that day
- reminds that heard that may be a little girl had told someone that she saw you at a house that peter used to take children to sometimes but I wasn't sure - you said you didn't know
 - started remembering - white brick house - balcony - 3 men in it - Peter's friends - did mean things like hitting and kicking us and told us to jump off the balcony
 - house just across from the Crèche
 - did mean things in the hall
